OUTREACH-H.O.P.E. 11TH ANNUAL "SUPPLYING OUR FUTURE IN THE PRESENT" SATURDAY, JULY 27, 2013, 8:00 AM - 11:00 AM

The school bell is about to ring and it is time to start bringing your donations for the 11th annual school supplies, new socks and briefs outreach project. Last year the project was greatly blessed by the outpouring of donated supplies and monetary gifts that we were able to help over 400 students prepare for the new school year. God has really blessed this project and everyone who has participated. PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A TIME CHANGE FROM LAST YEAR. ALSO WE WILL BE MEETING ON FRIDAY NIGHT AT 7:00 PM TO SET UP INSTEAD OF DOING IT SATURDAY MORNING. WE WOULD LIKE HELPERS TO BE THERE SATURDAY MORNING AT 7:00 AM.

Please place supplies in the blue container in the foyer. If you would like to make a monetary donation instead there will be a container available in the foyer.

These are just a few of the items that students will need:

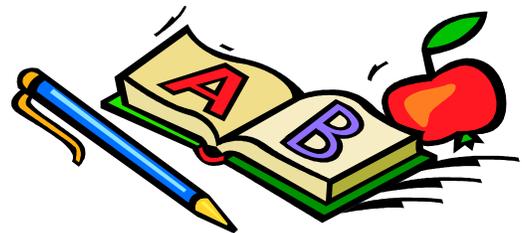

Red ink pens, colored pencils, highlighters, 3X5 index cards, color markers, big pink erasers, loose leaf notebook paper (wide or college rule), zipper pencil bag, glue and glue sticks, ball point pens, pocket folders, spiral notebooks (wide or college rule), 3 ring binders, book bags, pencil boxes, pencils, paints

DON'T FORGET THE SOCKS AND BRIEFS!

Watch for sign up sheets in the foyer and please consider volunteering even if you can only help for a little while. There is lots of work to do before the door is opened. It is so rewarding to see the smiles on the children's faces and how appreciative the parents are for the help. Every year the number of families that seek help have increased. Please show God's love to others just as He has showed His love to us in so many ways.

The Kansas Lions Mobile Health Screening Unit will also be available, at no charge, to anyone for the following test: 2 vision test, hearing, blood pressure, and blood sugar. For more information contact a Lions Club Member.

Freedom

Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD... Psalm 33:12. I pray God's blessing and protection for all of us as we celebrate the freedom we have as a nation this Independence Day. There are some things going on that should make us wonder about those freedoms, though.

In April, a 14 year old boy was arrested for wearing a National Rifle Association t-shirt to school. Well, actually, there is a little more to it than that. He wore the NRA shirt to school. At lunch, he was confronted by a school official and was told to remove the shirt or turn it inside out. The student refused citing his first amendment right of freedom of speech. There is nothing patently offensive about the shirt (i.e. no profanity, blatant racism or sexual innuendo or images) and the school dress code did not prohibit the shirt. When the young man refused, the teacher began yelling at him which caused a scene in the cafeteria. The young man was suspended for disrupting the educational process and the arresting officer said he almost caused a riot.

Now this 14 year old student is charged with obstruction of an officer. Prosecutors have moved forward in actively pursuing the charge — the middle schooler could face up to a year and jail and a $500 fine if found guilty. I am sure there are other details we are missing, but does this sound like freedom?

This year's valedictorian of the Joshua, TX high senior class was required to submit his speech for review to school officials. He was told that if he deviated from the approved speech at all, the microphone would be cut off. He did deviate and the mic was cut off. What is ironic is the subject matter that he began to talk about when he went off the approved script. Here are his words that caused the mic to be shut off:

We are all fortunate to live in a country where we can express our beliefs, where our mics won't be turned off, as I have been threatened to be if I veer away from the school-censored speech I have just finished. Just as Jesus spoke out against the authority of the Pharisees and Sadducees, who tried to silence him, I will not have my freedom of speech taken away from me. And I urge you all to do the same. Do not let anyone take away your religious or Constitutional rights from you.

According to the boy's father, a teacher in the school, the principal threatened to derail his college career. "The principal came back to me later that day, June 7, and said that legally he could only send a personal letter to the Naval Academy and strip Remington of all honors related to character." Does that sound like freedom?

This is just a couple of examples of incidents that are going on all over our country. Incidents that I believe would make our founding fathers roll over in their graves.

Are our freedoms being slowly eroded in our nation? Is it possible that soon we won't be able to speak out against false religions like Islam or against biblically defined sexual sin without fear of reprisal?

I don't know where we are headed. I hope this is just a glitch in the history of the United States and we can get back on the right track soon. But if we keep heading down this path we must realize that God did not guarantee us the freedoms we have in this nation. We must be good stewards of the freedom that God has bestowed upon this nation, and we haven't done that. As a nation, we have drifted farther and farther from God. This is obvious from the entertainment choices we now have, the legislation that gets passed, the court decisions that are adjudicated and our public educational system (we have some great Christian teachers, and they are working hard in a broken system that has tried to abandon God – keep up the good work!).

Remember Peter, John and Paul all lived under the oppression of a Roman emperor, yet they were free. The Christians who were in concentration camps in WWII were free. Christians being persecuted in Muslim countries today are free. How are they free? They are free in Christ. So if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed. John 8:36.

Recipe Swap

HONEY CHICKEN KABOBS

¼ c. vegetable oil
1/3 c. honey
1/3 c. soy sauce
¼ tsp. black pepper
8 skinless, boneless chicken breast halves, cut into 1 inch cubes
2 cloves garlic
5 small onions, cut into 2 inch pieces
2 red bell peppers, cut into 2 inch pieces
(can use other vegetables your choice, like mushrooms, zucchini, tomatoes etc.)

In a large bowl, whisk together oil, honey, soy sauce and pepper. Before adding chicken, reserve a small amount of marinade to brush onto kabobs while cooking. Place the chicken, garlic, onions and peppers in the bowl, and marinate in the refrigerator at least 2 hours (the longer the better).

Preheat the grill for high heat.

Drain marinade from the chicken and vegetables and discard marinade. Thread chicken and vegetables alternately onto the skewers.

Lightly oil the grill grate. Place the skewers on the grill. Cook for 12-15 minutes until chicken juices run clear. Turn and brush with reserved marinade frequently.

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

Our freedom in Christ cannot be eroded. It can never be diminished. No one can take it away from you. His kingdom will never fall and be replaced by some dictatorial regime. Satan already tried a coup and he failed. Jesus' love endures forever and so does the freedom that comes with giving your life to Him.

A life in Christ gives us freedom from worry, freedom from emptiness, freedom from insecurity. In Christ we have peace, joy and love in abundance. No one can take that away from you. Most importantly, we have freedom from sin. We now have freedom from the penalty of sin. As we become more like Christ, we gain freedom from the power of sin. Someday we will be with our Lord and Savior and we will forever enjoy freedom from the presence of sin. Ah, blessed freedom – it is found only in Christ!

Mike
