The Word of the Month: Faithfulness

Last Wednesday (5/27) I attended a wedding. Vows were made; rings were exchanged. Though the vows were written by the bride and groom, they still conveyed the message that they would be faithful to each other as long as they both were living.

I will be officiating a wedding in June, another in July and attending yet one more in September. Some will use traditional vows; others have written the vows themselves. The traditional vows that I use when I conduct a ceremony go something like this: “(Groom) do you take (Bride) to be your wife? (I do) Do you promise to love, honor, cherish and protect her, forsaking all others and holding only to her forevermore? (I do).” The “I do” portion is pretty important!

We then continue with repeated vows: “I, (Groom) take you (Bride), to be my wife. To have and to hold, in sickness and in health, for richer or for poorer, and I promise my love to you forevermore.” Obviously, the bride reciprocates toward her future husband with the appropriate changes made in the wording.

Then we get to the rings. With the placing of the ring, each is asked to repeat, “This ring I give you as a token and pledge of our constant faith and abiding love.” The ring is an outward symbol of what each has already pledged to do in his or her heart.

Look at some of the words in those vows. Promise. Honor. Cherish. Protect. Forsake (others). Forevermore. Pledge. Constant. Abiding. Faith. Love.

When you see this kind of faithfulness conveyed to someone, is it any wonder that God chose to use the marriage relationship as a picture of His love and faithfulness to the church? Ephesians 5:31-32 (ESV) “Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and hold fast to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.” This mystery is profound, and I am saying that it refers to Christ and the church.

This is why divorce between Christians is so heartbreaking. Yes, it is the tearing apart of two lives that God has joined together. It is hurtful to individuals and families. God loves them and doesn’t want to see them scarred by divorce. But I believe the greatest reason God hates divorce is that it displays an imperfect picture of Christ and his church.

When two people who made a lifelong pledge to one another before God, family and friends decide they no longer need to be faithful to that promise or to each other – that marriage is no longer a picture of Christ and His faithfulness to the church. Even if the two people no longer are ‘in love’, Christ doesn’t suddenly (or over a period of time) fall “out of love” with the church. That marriage no longer expresses the mystery of Christ and the church. See, God doesn’t break his promises; He always remains faithful.

For those who have been hurt by divorce – whether your parents divorced or a husband or wife left – don’t think God is the same. When the earthly pictures God gives us to help understand His nature and character somehow fail, we can always go to His word.

Deuteronomy 31:8 (ESV) It is the LORD who goes before you. He will be with you; he will not leave you or forsake you. Do not fear or be dismayed.” The psalmist wrote, “I will sing of the steadfast love of the LORD, forever; with my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.” Psalms 89:1 (ESV)

When we hurt, God promises to comfort us. When we are weak, God promises to give us strength. When we are afraid God promises to give us courage. When we are lonely, God promises to be with us. When we are empty, depressed and at the end of our rope, He gives us Himself. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today and forever. He will never leave us nor forsake us. He is truth – it is part of His very nature – it is impossible for God to lie. Therefore, when He makes a promise, we know He will keep it.

Recipe Swap

BEEF SHISH KABOBS

½ c. oil
1/3 c. soy sauce
¼ c. lemon juice
2 T. prepared mustard
2 T. Worcestershire sauce
1 clove garlic, minced
1 tsp. fresh ground black pepper
1 ½ tsp. salt
1 ½ pounds lean beef round or chuck, cut in 1 inch pieces
Veggies of your choice: peppers of any color cut into pieces, onions cut into wedges, tomatoes, squash, mushrooms (soak the mushrooms in boiling water for just a few minutes or they dry out too much), carrots. We also like pineapple on ours.

Mix all your marinade mixture together. Add beef pieces and marinate for several hours or overnight. Turn meat occasionally. Thread all your ingredients onto skewers in the order you want. Grill over hot coals or until meat is done like you want it. Turn often. Makes 4-5 servings.

This is one of our favorite recipes. Try it for Father's Day.

OUTREACH- H.O.P.E. : 13TH ANNUAL "SUPPLYING OUR FUTURE IN THE PRESENT"

With school just ending it is hard to start thinking about purchasing new supplies, socks and underwear for the next school year, BUT now is the time! Please place supplies in the blue container in the foyer. If you would like to make a monetary donation instead there will be a container available. These are just a few of the items that students will need: Red, Blue and Black ink pens, colored pencils, highlighters, 3x5 index cards, big pink erasers, loose leaf notebook, zipper pencil bag, glue and glue sticks, 3 ring binders, big boxes of Kleenex, paper-either wide or college ruled, pocket folders, wide notebook, college notebook, book bags, pencil boxes, pencils, color markers, paints. Don't forget the socks and briefs. Mark Saturday, July 25, 2015, 8:00 AM to 11:00 AM on your calendars for this outreach ministry. We will be meeting to set up on Friday night July 24th at 7:00 PM at the Kendall Bank Building. Please consider volunteering, even if you can only help for the few hours. There is lots of work to do before the door is opened. It is so rewarding to see the smiles on the children's faces and how appreciative the parents are for the help. Every year the number of families that seek help have increased. Please show God's love to others just as He has showed His love to us in so many ways. The Kansas Lions Mobile Health Screening Unit will also be available, at no charge, to anyone for the following test: vision test, hearing, blood pressure and blood sugar. For more information contact a Lions Club Member. "LET US NOT BECOME WEARY IN DOING GOOD, FOR AT THE PROPER TIME WE WILL REAP A HARVEST IF WE DO NOT GIVE UP."

NIV GALATIANS 6:9

COLLECTING FOR ALPHA: Alpha Christian Children's Home can use Campbell soup UPC labels and lids, Best Choice UPC labels and General Mills Box Top Symbols coupons (Box Tops for Education.) We will have a box in the hallway outside the nursery under the mailboxes.

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

(continued from page 2) This vow from God is made to a very precise group. Romans 8:28 (ESV) And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose. It is for true believers, His church, which is the Bride of Christ! When we place our faith in Jesus as Savior and receive Him as Lord, He in essence says to us, “I take you to have and to hold, in sickness and in health, for richer or for poorer, and I promise my love to you forevermore.”

Let us love one another, all brothers and sisters, friends and enemies, as an example of Christ’s love and faithfulness toward us. Let us remain faithful to God because He is faithful to us. Lamentations 3:22-23 (ESV) The steadfast love of the LORD never ceases; his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

Mike
