A LITTLE INSPIRING MESSAGE FOR THE DAY!

THE BUZZARD

If you put a buzzard in a pen that is 6 feet by 8 feet and is entirely open at the top, the bird, in spite of its ability to fly, will be an absolute prisoner. The reason is that a buzzard always begins a flight from the ground with a run of 10-12 feet. Without space to run, as is its habit, it will not even attempt to fly, but will remain a prisoner for life in a small jail with no top.

THE BAT

The ordinary bat that flies around at night, a remarkably nimble creature in the air, cannot take off from a level place. If it is placed on the floor or flat ground, all it can do is shuffle about helplessly and no doubt, painfully, until it reaches some slight elevation from which it can throw itself into the air. Then, at once, it takes off like a flash.

THE BUMBLEBEE

A bumblebee, if dropped into an open tumbler, will be there until it dies, unless it is taken out. It never sees the means of escape at the top, but persists in trying to find some way out through the sides near the bottom. It will seek a way where none exists, until it completely destroys itself.

PEOPLE

In many ways, we are like the buzzard, the bat, and the bumblebee. We struggle about with all our problems and frustrations, never realizing that all we have to do is .....

Thanks and Help!

Thanksgiving time. Turkey, Charlie Brown specials, mashed potatoes, stuffing, getting stuffed, football, more turkey...oh, yeah, and giving thanks!!

There have been many positive happenings at VFCC recently that should be acknowledged. However, it is always scary to publicly thank many people because you run the risk of leaving someone out and offending them. So I just won't do it.

Just kidding!

Here are some things I am thankful for as the pastor at VFCC.

First, I am thankful for the Lord. No brainer, right? Except – transparency time – I so often feel inadequate for the task and overwhelmed by everything. It is by the grace and strength of the Lord that I am able to do any of this. Paul dealt with the same feelings of insufficiency. 2 Corinthians 3:4-6 (ESV) Such is the confidence that we have through Christ toward God. Not that we are sufficient in ourselves to claim anything as coming from us, but our sufficiency is from God, who has made us sufficient to be ministers of a new covenant...

Next I am thankful for my wife. Gina keeps me on track. Well, she tries but I am awfully stubborn! I am so thankful for her love and support.

I am thankful for my children and their spouses. God has truly blessed us in that area.

That's the way it should be. God first, spouse second and your children third.

Finally, church family. People are stepping out of their comfort zones and trying new things and it is crazy fun to watch!

I am thankful for JAMs and everyone involved in that. We have 39 students enrolled in the Wednesday afternoon program. It has more than exceeded our expectations! Thank you to the leaders and those who have answered the call to help when our numbers skyrocketed. Thank you for those providing snacks. This is a great way to minister to the young people of the community, many who are unchurched.

I am thankful for the school supply/outreach ministry. I'm thankful for everyone who picked up the huge task of putting it on in 2016 and for those who are carrying it into the future. This is an enormous undertaking and requires the whole year to plan and raise funds.

I am thankful that the S.O.S. group has been resurrected. I already see them meeting important needs within the body as well as providing an opportunity for fellowship.

I am thankful for the m&m group that is beginning. This is living out the mandate in Titus 2:3-5 that the older women should teach the younger.

I am thankful that there is now a time specifically set aside just for prayer at the church. We began meeting Thursday mornings from 7-7:30 a.m. so the body of Christ can come together and pray. Thank you to all who have come to lift up this church and community. Thank you to all who prayed from home as well! Thanks to all our prayer warriors – you can never have too much prayer!

I am not only thankful for the new, but the established as well. The list is long and if I leave anyone out I apologize in advance.

Thanks to all who teach Sunday school, lead Bible studies and work in the nursery.

Thanks to everyone who has taken a yellow folder to oversee a ministry for a year.

Thanks to those who get us through a worship service: the music ministry, servers, greeters, scripture readers, bulletin and newsletter preparers, etc.

Thanks to all the board members who oversee the ministries of the church.

Thanks to those who work on the building, mow, beautify and clean so it is well maintained and looks good every week.

Thanks for giving financially to support the church and the work we do in the community.

I am thankful for the salvations we have witnessed this year. These new Christians were either invited to church or witnessed to by you! If they happened to choose this church on their own, they were loved enough to stay and hear the gospel.

Recipe Swap

PUMPKIN PECAN COBBLER

1 c. + 3 T. flour
2 tsp. baking powder
½ tsp. salt
¾ c. sugar
1 tsp. cinnamon
½ tsp. nutmeg
¼ tsp. cloves
½ c. pumpkin puree
¼ c. milk
¼ c. melted butter or oil
1 ½ tsp. vanilla
Topping:
½ c. sugar
½ c. brown sugar
¼ c. chopped pecans
1 ½ c. very hot water

Preheat oven to 350*. In a medium sized bowl, stir together flour, baking powder, salt, sugar and spices. Set aside.

In a smaller bowl, stir pumpkin, milk, melted butter and vanilla together to combine. Pour into dry ingredients and mix to create a thick batter. Pour into a small 8 inch casserole dish with high sides.

In a separate bowl, stir sugar, brown sugar and pecans together. Spread over the top of the batter evenly. Pour hot water over the entire thing {WITHOUT STIRRING A THING!} and bake for 40 minutes or once the middle is set. Be sure to place on a baking sheet in case it bubbles over. Cool 5-10 minutes before serving. Serve with more pecans and vanilla ice cream. Makes 8 servings.

It takes each person in the body of Christ to make it work the way God desires. Thank you.

So now, not to sound ungrateful... HELP!

Help! I need somebody. Help! Not just anybody. Help, you know I need someone, help.

We had three new students in the Jr/Sr High youth group last Sunday. We had ten in attendance with the potential for twelve or thirteen. It is really too much for one person and God may continue to grow these numbers. We are asking. If you feel the call, volunteer to help out with Sunday night youth group or provide meals/snacks.

Soon, yellow ministry folders will be out again for 2017. They are things like Mother's Day, Father's Day, funeral dinners, baby showers, etc. Please consider taking one to ensure these ministries and events continue.

RETURN SERVICE REQUESTED

JAMs will constantly need helpers and snack providers. The nursery needs more workers during the worship service. We are also looking for someone to oversee the nursery scheduling for worship time. It would be great to see more people during Thursday morning prayer. It is always good when we are looking to share the gospel and invite people to church. Encourage someone who hasn't been at church for a while. These are only a few of the areas you can help with.

I am thankful for what God has done here and am thankful in advance for what He has planned for the future. We need every person involved in one way or another. We have witnessed people meeting needs that God has put on their hearts to start new ministries and continue in the established ones. We are asking all who are able to help keep VFCC going strong!

Mike
